The Good News from  St. Michael School

St. Michael School students wrapped up their March study of the Virtue of Respect when they returned from Easter break. Pictured here are those students who were selected by their homeroom teachers as true examples of “recognizing the dignity of all people.” Virtues lessons in Religion classes also focused on learning about several saints: St. Damien of Molokai, St. Jean Jugan and Pope John Paul II. The kiddos also enjoyed being given a situation to be resolved with the most respectable actions. We encourage all of our parish families to discuss the Virtue of Respect so that our children can be examples to all ages of “recognizing the dignity of all people.”
