Father Frank's Fire

She was caught and she should pay the penalty -- period! This is a common attitude held by many people. You broke the rules and now you are out of the game. Many times we are filled with righteous indignation and demand that people be punished for their actions. Sometimes we are not satisfied until people have paid their penalty.

The gospel today, once again, challenges us to look at our behaviors and attitudes. The woman was caught in adultery and was humiliated before the entire town. Did you ever wonder what happened to the man? Does it not take two to commit adultery? Was he one of the angry mob with a stone in his hand? Jesus seems uninterested with the entire event. Jesus does nothing but invites the one who is without sin to cast the first stone. It must have been a sight – to watch them walk away one by one realizing their own sinfulness. I certainly know that I would have dropped my stone and walked away humiliated. How many times have we cried out for revenge or justice, not remembering our own faults? How many times were we just “not caught?”

Jesus invites us into a new way of thinking – of not condemning, but rather helping one another recognize the errors of our ways. Jesus does not approve of the woman's behavior but tells her not to sin any more. Jesus condemns her actions, but not the person. I remember growing up and one of the good Sisters used to say, “hate the sin, but love the sinner.” Let us stop condemning one another and start helping each other to live Christian lives. Let us pray for the wisdom and grace to help the sinner in each of us to change our ways.

I have to admit I see this gospel in a little different light this year. Last week I was called for jury service. I have been on two juries in my lifetime. I reported to the Bridgeview courthouse nicely dressed in my roman collar fully expecting to be dismissed. I was not dismissed; in fact I was empaneled on a jury for a criminal case. I know it is a privilege to serve as a juror, but that was the last thing I wanted to do. I have to get things ready for Holy Week!

The State's Attorney asked me, “Father, another priest told me during jury selection that he could not be a juror because only God can judge? Do you believe the same way?” I thought to myself that I should ask if I said yes – could I go home? Well I was not going to judge the soul of the accused but only the alleged criminal activity. So I was selected and listened to the entire trial. After a day of testimony and closing arguments – it was time for the jury to deliberate. The judge asked me and another juror to stay in the courtroom. He informed us that we had been alternative jurors in case someone got sick, and we were dismissed. What a relief – I would not have to decide guilt or innocence. I have a newfound respect for those that take their civic responsibility seriously and are willing to serve as jurors. It is true, we should not judge or condemn people but we can judge actions.

Holy Week

Next week is Passion Sunday and then we begin Holy Week, the most sacred time of the Church's year. Throughout Holy Week we experience the events that bring us salvation. We are not spectators to these events, but we are participants. These days are not ancient history but have everything to do with your lives today. I invite you to devote a significant amount of time in prayer during Holy Week, meditating on the Pascal Mystery (the suffering, death, and resurrection of the Lord) and giving thanks to God for the gift of Jesus Christ, the Savior of the world.

The sacred days of Thursday of the Lord's Supper (Holy Thursday), Friday of the Passion of the Lord (Good Friday), and Holy Saturday have the most moving liturgies of the entire year. I invite you to come and celebrate with us as we experience salvation history. Please plan to attend these powerful liturgies.

Yours in the Crucified Christ,

Fr. Frank

HOLY THURSDAY VISITATION TO SEVEN CHURCHES

The tradition of visiting seven churches on Holy Thursday began in the 1500s. It allows Catholics a way of keeping watch with Christ as though at the Garden of Gethsemane before His passion.

St. Michael Knights of Columbus Council 10858, is sponsoring a bus to visit seven churches on Holy Thursday, April 17 following 7 PM Mass. We will enter each church to pray for 10-15 minutes and then proceed to the next church. The entire trip should take 2-3 hours. The bus is free but please call Brian Kovacs at 708-846-1068 for a reservation. Seats are limited. The seven churches we will visit include St. Michael Parish in Orland Park; Saint Francis of Assisi in Orland Park; Our Mother of Good Council in Homer Glen; St. Mary in Mokena; St. Jude in New Lenox; Sts. Cyril & Methodius Church in Lemont; and St. Bernard in Homer Glen.

DEL JUEVES SANTO A SIETE IGLESIAS

La tradición de visitar siete iglesias comenzó en el siglo XVI. Permite a los católicos una forma de permanecer vigilantes con Cristo como si estuvieran en el Huerto de Getsemaní antes de su pasión.

Los Caballeros de Colón de St. Michael (Consejo 10858) patrocina un autobús para visitar 7 iglesias el jueves 17 de abril, después de la misa de las 7:00 PM. Entraremos a orar de 10 a 15 minutos y luego nos dirigiremos a la siguiente iglesia. El viaje completo durará entre 2 a 3 horas. El autobús es gratuito, pero para reservar, llame a Brian Kovacs al 708-846-1068. El cupo es limitado. Visitaremos las siguientes 7 Iglesias: St. Michael Parish en Orland Park; St. Francis of Assisi en Orland Park; Our Mother of Good Council en Homer Glen; St. Mary en Mokena; St. Jude en New Lenox; Sts. Cyril & Methodius en Lemont; y St. Bernard en Homer Glen.

When I was a little girl, I remember I didn't do my homework for one of my classes. I knew I was going to get in trouble for not doing my assignment. I was so nervous. What am I going to do when the teacher comes by to collect my homework? So I started asking around, "Hey, did you do your homework?" I kept going around asking my classmates if they did their homework and sure enough, I found someone else who forgot. BINGO! So when the teacher came around to collect homework I said, "I forgot to do it but so did she! So I'm not the only one." The teacher wasn't too pleased with me.

- 1) I forgot to do my homework.
- 2) I tattled on a classmate.
- 3) I judged someone else's behavior to overshadow my own bad behavior.

Not good. I was asked to take a note home to my parents and got a much-deserved punishment.

I reflect on that day because there were many lessons to be learned. I should have done what I was supposed to do — my homework. I also should not have called out other people who didn't do their homework. More importantly, I knew I did wrong. Why was it so important for me to bring someone else down with me? What business was it of mine to call out what they did as wrong? I was no better than she was. I did wrong and my focus should have been on my own behavior, not someone else's.

In today's Gospel, a woman is found committing what they believed was a sin. They wanted to catch Jesus in a legal trap – they wanted him to scold the woman. However, Jesus did something else. He bent down and wrote on the ground and said, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." One by one, each person left. Soon it was Jesus alone with the woman, and he said to her, "Go, and from now on do not sin any more."

The main message of this story is that it can be easier for some of us to point out the sins in others. The people that called out the woman's behavior could not stand there and say that they had never committed a sin. It is wrong to judge others, and Jesus pointed that out to them.

It is God's job to judge us. It is not our job to go around calling out each other's sins. Let us remember this. When we see people behaving badly, ask yourself, "Do I behave this way? Can I improve and do better?" It also is important to know that no matter what our sins may be, God will be our judge. We can always change our behavior and our Father will see that our heart is pure; no one else can do that!

Dear God, we thank you for sending Jesus to show us how to behave. Amen.

Schoenstatt Covenant of Love for Women Begins this Monday, April 7 @ 6:30 P.M. in the Commons

As lay apostolic movement of moral and religious renewal in the Catholic Church, members of our Schoenstatt Ministry have repeatedly experienced how the love of the Blessed Virgin Mary opens new avenues to a vibrant relationship with Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit and God the Father, and to a renewal of love of neighbor and self.

We are excited to be offering the Schoenstatt Covenant of Love Consecration at St. Michael Parish, and we encourage all women of the parish to join us. The first of three formation gatherings will take place this Monday, April 7 at 6:30 p.m. in the Commons. We also will meet on Monday, May 19 and Monday, June 9.

Please join us to learn more about how a deep and devoted Marian spirituality leads to overcoming loneliness, anxiety and low self-esteem to find courage, strength, hope and God-willed solutions to family, social and political problems. For more information and/or questions, please email Laura Flaherty at flahertyfam5@yahoo.com. You also can pick up a Schoenstatt brochure in the Kiosk outside the Parish Office or visit the Schoenstatt Movement of Wisconsin and Illinois website at <https://schoenstatt-wisconsin.us>.

El Espiritu del Padre Frank

Laatraparon y debe pagar el castigo, ¡y punto! Esta es una actitud común en muchas personas. Rompiste las reglas y ahora estás fuera del juego. Muchas veces nos llenamos de justa indignación y exigimos que se castigue a los demás por sus acciones. A veces no estamos satisfechos hasta que pagan su castigo.

El Evangelio de hoy, una vez más, nos reta a examinar nuestros comportamientos y actitudes. La mujer fue sorprendida en adulterio y humillada ante todo el pueblo. ¿Te has preguntado alguna vez qué le pasó al hombre? ¿Acaso no se necesitan dos para cometer adulterio? ¿Era uno más entre la multitud enfurecida con una piedra en la mano? Jesús parece desinteresado en todo el acontecimiento. No hace nada más que invitar al que está libre de pecado a tirar la primera piedra. Debió ser un espectáculo verlos alejarse uno a uno, reconociendo su propia pecaminosidad. Yo, sin duda, habría dejado caer mi piedra y me habría ido humillado. ¿Cuántas veces hemos clamado venganza o justicia sin recordar nuestras propias faltas? ¿Cuántas veces simplemente “no nos atraparon?”

Jesús nos invita a una nueva forma de pensar: no condenarnos, sino ayudarnos mutuamente a reconocer nuestros errores. Jesús no aprueba su comportamiento, pero le dice que no peque más. Jesús condena sus acciones, pero no a la persona. Recuerdo que, de niña, una de las buenas hermanas solía decir: “Odia el pecado, pero ama al pecador”. Dejemos de condenarnos y empecemos a ayudarnos mutuamente a vivir vidas cristianas. Oremos por la sabiduría y la gracia para ayudar al pecador que hay en cada uno de nosotros.

Debo admitir que este año veo este evangelio de una manera un poco diferente. La semana pasada me llamaron para servir como jurado. He formado parte de dos jurados en mi vida. Me presenté en el juzgado de Bridgeview elegantemente vestido con mi cuello romano, con la expectativa de ser despedido. No fue así; de hecho, me nombraron jurado para un caso penal. Sé que es un privilegio servir como jurado, pero era lo último que quería hacer. ¡Tengo que preparar todo para la Semana Santa!

El fiscal me preguntó: “Padre, otro sacerdote me dijo durante la selección del jurado que no podía ser jurado porque solo Dios puede juzgar. ¿Cree usted lo mismo?” Pensé para mis adentros que debería preguntar si decía que sí: ¿podría irme a casa? Bueno, no iba a juzgar el alma del acusado, sino solo la presunta actividad criminal. Así que fui seleccionado y escuché todo el juicio. Tras un día de testimonios y alegatos finales, llegó el momento de que el jurado deliberara. El juez nos pidió a mí y a otro miembro del jurado que nos quedáramos en la sala. Nos informó que éramos jurados suplentes en caso de que alguien se enfermara y nos despidieron. ¡Qué alivio! No tendría que decidir sobre la culpabilidad o la inocencia. Siento un nuevo respeto por quienes se toman en serio su responsabilidad cívica y están dispuestos a servir como jurados. Es cierto que no debemos juzgar ni condenar a las personas, pero sí podemos juzgar sus acciones.

Semana Santa

La próxima semana es el Domingo de Pasión y comenzamos la Semana Santa, el tiempo más sagrado del año eclesial. A lo largo de esta semana, experimentamos los acontecimientos que nos traen la salvación. No somos espectadores de estos acontecimientos, sino participantes. Estos días no son historia antigua, sino que tienen mucho que ver con sus vidas hoy. Los invito a dedicar un tiempo significativo a la oración esta semana, meditando en el Misterio Pascual (el sufrimiento, la muerte y la resurrección del Señor), así como a dar gracias a Dios por el don de Jesucristo, el Salvador del mundo.

Los días sagrados del Jueves Santo, el Viernes Santo y el Sábado Santo albergan las liturgias más conmovedoras de todo el año. Los invito a venir y celebrar con nosotros mientras experimentamos la historia de la salvación. Por favor, asistan a estas impactantes liturgias.

Suyo en Cristo Crucificado,

P. Frank

LENTEN ALMSGIVING OPPORTUNITIES

Please Help Us Feed the Hungry

As part of your Lenten almsgiving, would you consider giving non-perishable food to support Pro Labore Dei's mission to feed the hungry? You can drop your donations at the parish office or by the brown paper bag collection bin in the Narthex any time. Our parish's Saturday morning food sharing ministry team will include your donation in our weekly delivery of food to Pro Labore Dei's distribution site in Posen. Through the intercession of St. John Joseph of the Cross, may we always know the importance of taking care of the poor and giving from our blessings. Contact Kelly Martinez at kmartinez@saintmike.com with questions.

Please Pick Up A Lenten Cross

During the season of Lent we are once again reminded of our need to commit ourselves to prayer, fasting and almsgiving. The Social Concerns Ministry has placed crosses with requests from our sharing parish St. Basil/Visitation, as well as from St. Vincent de Paul, Aid for Women, and other local charities, in the Narthex. Please select a cross as an expression of your commitment to the practice of almsgiving. Please return your unwrapped package with the cross attached before Palm Sunday-April 13. We ask that any gifts you bring be new. Place gift cards in the collection basket or turn them in at the parish office; do not leave them in the Narthex.

Thank You for being the heart, hands & feet of Jesus this Lent

Mother's Room — St. Michael Parish is pleased to provide a mothers room for nursing mothers during Mass times. Anyone interested in using
