FR. FRANK'S FIRE

Today's Gospel passage may seem very strange to us and we might be surprised at the conversation between Jesus and the Canaanite women. Perhaps a little background might be helpful. There was a great debate going on in Matthew's community. The debate was over the Gentiles. Could Jewish Christians and Gentiles coexist in the same community? The Gospel today answers that question and the answer is a resounding "YES!"

A Canaanite woman, a Gentile, approaches Jesus with a request to heal her daughter. Almost shocking to us, Jesus ignores her and reminds her that his mission was to "the lost sheep of the house of Israel" or to the Jewish people. Many of the Jewish Christians in Matthew's community would want her sent away.

In most circumstances, after receiving such a negative response, the woman would have walked away. But she did not – she persisted in her request and refers to Jesus as "Lord." Jesus' response is harsh, "It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs." Sadly, a derogatory term for the Canaanites was the word dog. Again rejected, the woman does not leave nor loses hope, she persists with her petition.

The woman's persistent faith was victorious. Jesus granted her request and acknowledged her great faith. The Gospel passage is a reminder about the dynamics of faith – for authentic faith crosses all barriers and embraces all people. Faith overcomes fear and it is such faith that Jesus desires.

Although this Gospel answered the question whether Jewish Christians and Gentiles could coexist in the same community, it also answers questions in our own lives. As Christians, we are particularly called to be the "leaven" that lifts society or raises society to a greater height. In Biblical times, the question was between Gentiles and Jews, perhaps in our times it is black and white or Christian and Muslim that have to learn to live and work together – not for the betterment of one group, but for the betterment of all.

Let us pray that the Holy Spirit will come upon us to give us the courage to recognize all people as children of God. Let us pray that all human persons be respected and celebrated as children of God. Let us pray that we like the Canaanite women may hear the voice of Jesus say, "Great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish!"

In Christ's love,

Fr. Frank

Hey, Kids!

God loves everyone. Without exception. Throughout the Bible, there are stories about His love for us. In today's Gospel, Jesus says something a little shocking, but I do think it is clear what Jesus was doing. You see, the Canaanite people were looked down on and were not respected. This Canaanite woman came to Jesus and asked him to cure her daughter from a demon. Jesus initially ignored her. The disciples were disturbed by her presence and even asked Jesus to send her away. Jesus told her that he only helped the people of Israel. However, the woman did not give up. She knelt before Jesus and begged him to help her daughter. Jesus said was, "It is not right to take the children's bread and toss it to the dogs." The woman replied, "Yes, it is, Lord," she said. "Even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their master's table." It was shocking that Jesus compared this woman to a dog, because we don't typically hear Jesus talk this way in the Bible. However, because of her persistent faith in him he said, "Woman, you have great faith! Your request is granted." Her daughter was healed at that moment.

Upon reflection, I think we tend to see people live their lives and love Jesus in different ways than we do. We see them live different lifestyles that we may think are unlovable by God. We may even think that they deserve to be treated unkindly or sent away because they are different from us. However, this story confirms that God is the judge. He determines who is fit for His love. If a person loves God and believes in Him, who are we to send them away from our church? Let us learn from this passage, everyone is loved by God and it is HE who determines who will eat at his table. Amen.

Dear Parishioners,

Saint Michael Parish in Orland Park has been a source of religion and community for me my whole life.

Between attending weekly services on Sunday to working through religious education to get confirmed and receive communion, I thought it was only right that I pay back to the church through the works of my Eagle project. My Eagle Scout Service Project is all about adding onto and improving the church garden into a nicer place for praying, meeting, and providing a nice place to relax in nature with the presence of God. This will be done by planting new flowers and shrubs that can provide color and help the bees and other beneficial insects, installing solar lights to light up the path, adding new mulch for better plant growth and a cleaner look, and installing a wooden bench with a backrest for the people visiting the garden. Every penny that is contributed will be used to buy the necessary items required to complete this project, such as plants, mulch, solar lights, and the bench. Any extra funds will be donated to Saint Michael Parish. Regardless of how big or small, your contribution will help to make this project a reality. Besides helping me obtain the rank of Eagle Scout, your contribution will also leave a long lasting impact on St. Michael and to all the people who come to attend worship here in the future. Thank you for spending some time reading about my project, and thank you for considering making a contribution.

Sincerely,
Andy Kotecki

QUEST IS COMING

WHAT IS QUEST?

- Quest is an informal discussion group made of high school teens
- They meet twice a month on Sunday nights for two hours in Leader Couple homes.
- Teens are in grouped by the same grade level and all come from the same parish.
- There is no homework, no sermons.
- A typical evening allows for teens to discuss contemporary topics, allowing them to share their views, all with a Christian overview. Social time is included.

WHO IS QUEST FOR?

Sometimes parents and teens are mistaken that because the teen attends a Catholic high school, they don't need Quest. WRONG! Quest is a group of teens getting together talking about their life issues in a relaxed atmosphere with friends and their Quest parents. Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors from public and Catholic schools need QUEST. Teens will be placed in groups by their year in high school and with a friend, if they request.

EL ESPIRITU DE PADRE FRANK

El pasaje del Evangelio de hoy puede parecernos muy extraño, y tal vez nos sorprenda la conversación entre Jesús y la mujer cananea. Quizás convenga conocer un poco el contexto. En la comunidad de Mateo existía un gran debate. El debate giraba en torno a los gentiles: ¿podían los cristianos de origen judío y los gentiles convivir en una misma comunidad? El Evangelio de hoy responde a esa pregunta, y la respuesta es un rotundo “¡SÍ!”.

Una mujer cananea, una gentil, se acerca a Jesús para pedirle que cure a su hija. Para nuestra sorpresa, Jesús la ignora y le recuerda que su misión era para "las ovejas perdidas de la casa de Israel" o para el pueblo judío. Muchos cristianos de origen judío en la comunidad de Mateo habrían querido que la expulsara.

En la mayoría de los casos, tras recibir una respuesta tan negativa, la mujer se habría marchado. Pero no lo hizo; insistió en su petición y se dirigió a Jesús llamándolo “Señor”. La respuesta de Jesús es dura: “No está bien tomar el pan de los hijos y echárselo a los perros”. Lamentablemente, «perro» era un término despectivo utilizado para referirse a los cananeos. A pesar de ser rechazada nuevamente, la mujer no se marcha ni pierde la esperanza; persiste en su súplica.

La fe perseverante de la mujer salió victoriosa. Jesús concedió su petición y reconoció su gran fe. Este pasaje del Evangelio nos recuerda la dinámica de la fe: una fe auténtica que derriba todas las barreras y abraza a todas las personas. La fe vence al miedo, y esa es la clase de fe que Jesús desea.

Aunque este Evangelio respondió a la pregunta de si los cristianos de origen judío y los gentiles podían convivir en una misma comunidad, también responde a interrogantes de nuestras propias vidas. Como cristianos, estamos llamados especialmente a ser la “levadura” que levanta a la sociedad o la eleva a un nivel superior. En tiempos bíblicos, la cuestión se planteaba entre gentiles y judíos; tal vez en nuestros días sean las personas de raza negra y blanca, o los cristianos y musulmanes, quienes deban aprender a vivir y trabajar juntos, no para el beneficio de un solo grupo, sino para el bien de todos.

Oremos para que el Espíritu Santo descienda sobre nosotros y nos dé la valentía de reconocer a todas las personas como hijos de Dios. Oremos para que todos los seres humanos sean respetados y valorados como hijos de Dios. Oremos para que nosotros, al igual que la mujer cananea, podamos escuchar la voz de Jesús decirnos: “¡Grande es tu fe! ¡Que se haga contigo tal como deseas!”.

En el Amor de Cristo
P. Frank

Fr. Daniel recently recited this prayer during a Sunday Homily and a Parishioner asked for it to be shared.

Bring Them Here to Me

Perhaps today you have very little.

Very little patience for a child who has drifted away.

Very little strength to care for someone who is sick.

Very little hope after receiving a diagnosis.

Very little faith after burying someone you loved.

Very little courage to enter an empty house again.

Very little love left for a marriage that is growing cold.

Perhaps all you have is a tired prayer, a hidden tear or the small desire not to give up.

Bring it to Jesus.

Do not wait until you feel strong.

Do not wait until your faith is perfect.

Do not wait until the fear disappears.

Bring him your exhaustion.

Bring him the guilt that still follows you.

Bring him the name of the person who keeps you awake at night.

Bring him the wound no one knows about.

Bring him even the heart that no longer knows how to pray.

Jesus is not asking how much you are missing. He is simply saying: “Bring me what you have.”

Bring him the life you have. Bring it to him.

The Magnificat

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord,
my spirit rejoices in God my Savior
for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant.

From this day all generations will
call me blessed:
the Almighty has done great things
for me,
and holy is his Name.

He has mercy on those who fear him
in every generation.

He has shown the strength of his arm,
he has scattered the proud in their conceit.

He has cast down the mighty from
their thrones,
and has lifted up the lowly.
He has filled the hungry with good
things,
and the rich he has sent away empty.
He has come to the help of his servant Israel
for he remembered his promise of
mercy,
the promise he made to our fathers,
to Abraham and his children forever.
(Lk 1:46-55)
