FR. FRANK'S FIRE

One of the blessings of being a parish priest is to help prepare couples for and to witness their marriage. Weddings are generally fun and we like to be included in such great festivities.

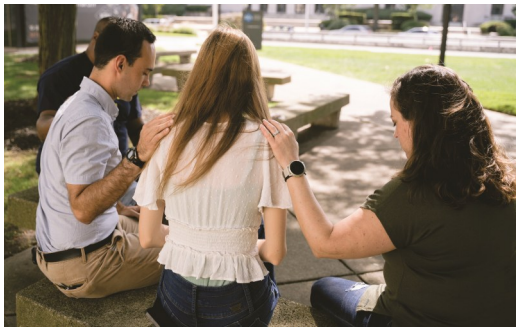

I think that this week's Gospel has something to say to us about being invited. We are invited to the wedding feast of Christ. This invitation was made by God himself. Each weekend we have five Masses, we have over 4,500 registered families and that is a lot of people. All are invited, but sadly, like in today's Gospel, many of the invited guests refuse to come.

Perhaps the word refuse is too strong. They have other things to do. Sleep in on Sunday mornings, there are games and practices to be at, travel plans, going out for breakfast, or just plain old relaxing. Some choose not to come because the times are inconvenient, they disagree with a teaching of the Church, they feel the Church is filled with scandal and hypocrites, they do not like the pastor or another priest. People are willing to give every excuse possible as to why they do not go to church on Sunday. Most excuses blame another rather than taking the responsibility for themselves.

Recent statistics show that over 80% of the children that we confirm in 8th grade will effectively leave the Catholic Church by the time they are in their twenties. It is not that they are going to other churches but they no longer identify themselves as a religious person but as "spiritual" – whatever that means. Since only Jesus has the power to save – I think they are heading for disaster and it is no wonder why people feel lost and empty – they are filling themselves with "things" and "relationships" that do not have the power to save but lead our souls to destruction.

Our attendance at Mass does not add any more glory to God. Mass is for us and not God. One of the prefaces we pray at Mass says, "For although you have no need of our praise, yet our thanksgiving is itself your gift, since our praises add nothing to your greatness but profit us for salvation." Jesus has given us the gift of the Eucharist for our strength and nourishment. Jesus himself invites us to the Wedding Banquet. The scriptures warn us that eventually our opportunity to respond to this generous invitation may run out. The doors will be locked and there will be the wailing and grinding of teeth. We are the ones who choose to or choose not to attend the feast. In a sense, we choose our own destiny by how we respond to God's invitation. We can respond by being part of the kingdom, or we can respond by walking away. The invitation is given – how are you going to respond? Jesus tells us today, "Many are invited, but few are chosen."

Prayer Teams

You may recall that over a year ago we began a new prayer ministry and prayer teams were formed. I am a firm believer in the power of prayer. Some people underestimate what is possible through prayer. Intercessory prayer is when one person prays for the needs of another. Many times people leave Mass asking the priests and deacons to pray for them or for one of their loved ones. It is a privilege to pray for someone and that should not be taken lightly.

Everyone can offer these types of prayers. Instead of coming to the priest and asking for a prayer sometime in the future – the prayer teams will be available and offer the prayer with the asker. I know that many feel embarrassed about asking for prayer. There is nothing to fear for prayer is so powerful. Some may feel reluctant to pray for others because they do not know the words. Again, there is nothing to fear, as there is no wrong-way to pray.

FR. FRANK'S FIRE

When we offered prayer teams after Mass, it was a powerful experience for both those asking for prayers and for the members of the prayer team. I unfortunately have not given this ministry the attention that it deserves. I have asked Fr. Louis to lead this ministry.

In order for this ministry to be successful, we will need more volunteers to form prayer teams. No experience is necessary. Formation will be offered so that the prayer intercessors become comfortable praying with others. Remember Jesus says that where two or three gather in his name – he will take his place among them.

I ask that you think about if God is calling you to be part of a prayer team. Fr. Louis will be organizing a meeting in the near future – but I just wanted you to begin to pray to see if God is calling you.

One, Two, and Three
You may have the feeling that you are being watched in Church and the truth is that you are! During October, every parish in the Archdiocese counts the number of people in attendance at each weekend Mass. These numbers are then used by the Archdiocese for future planning and for analysis of trends. This is the time of year to make sure that you are present and accounted for.

In Christ's love,
Fr. Frank

THE WORD, LET US PRAY & HEY, KIDS!

Hey, Kids!

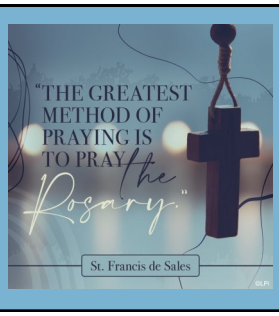

Can you imagine putting in a lot of work to throw a party and not one person shows up? If that did happen, how do you think it would make you feel? Would you be angry or sad? What would you do? Jesus once told a story (a parable) about a king who threw a party. None of the people the king invited showed up for his party. In Jesus' story, the king was going to have a party for his Son who was getting married. Since he was a king, and this was his only son, you can imagine that it was going to be quite a celebration and it was a great honor to be invited! All the plans had been made. The food was prepared. The invitations had been sent. The day of the celebration came, but no one showed up! The king sent his servants to see where the people were and why they had not come to his celebration. The people all began to make excuses about how busy they were. The king was very upset, so he told his servants to go out into the streets and invite everyone they saw to come to his son's wedding celebration. They did exactly what the king told them to do and the Bible tells us that the wedding hall was then filled with so many guests.

In this story, the King represents God (or the story is told in a way to understand how God thinks) and the son represents Jesus, the Son of God. God is going to have a great celebration for His Son in Heaven and we have all been invited. I can't imagine why, but some people will turn down God's invitation. You've been invited -- I hope you will accept God's invitation.

Dear Father, thank you for inviting us to join you in your celebration. If there are any here today who have not accepted your invitation, we pray that today will be the day. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

WHAT'S HAPPENING

SISTERS OF MERCY BOOK SALE

Sisters of Mercy Hermanas de la Misericordia

After 4:30 p.m. Mass on Saturday, October 17th and after all Masses on Sunday October 18th

Dear Parishioners of St. Michael - Greetings!

Sisters of Mercy, have been the recipient of some 20 boxes of new spiritual and other books from our now closed religious bookstore in California.

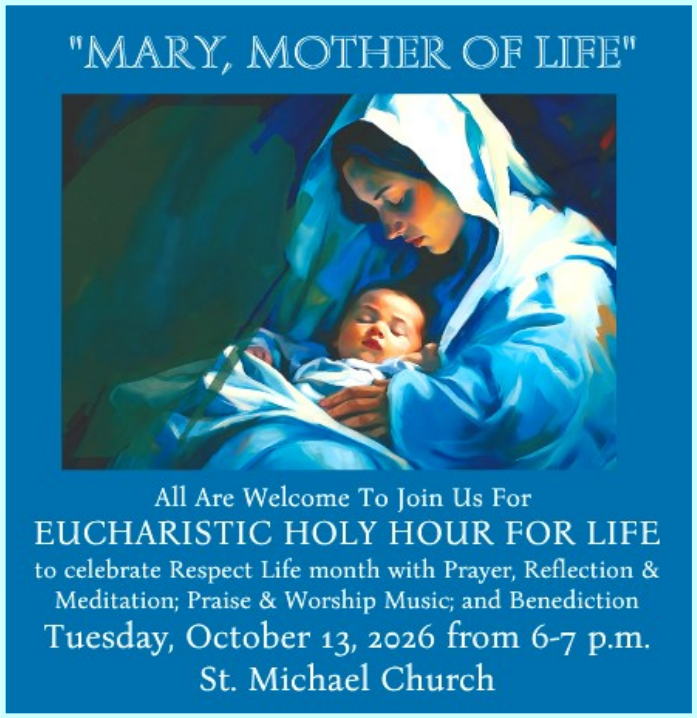

For anyone interested in purchasing one or more of these books for yourself or as a gift for another, books range in price from $1.00 to $10.00 at most and payment can be made in one of two ways: Cash or check made out to "Chicago Area Associates.''

Proceeds will be used for the Sisters of Mercy many ministries for those in most need. Some of these ministries are: Mercy Focus on Haiti, Mercy Beyond Borders, Mercy Housing, Support of Migrants, Mother McAuley High School and Saint Xavier University.

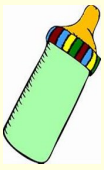

Sale of books will be after Masses on Saturday, October 17th and October 18th If you have any questions, please call Sister Carol Mucha at 708-297-4232 or email at cmucharsm5@gmail.com or contact Sister Carol Mucha at Mercy Circle 773-253-3713.

Thank you kindly,
Sister Carol Mucha, RSM and Mercy Associates

Baby Bottle Project

St. Michael Pro-Life ministry is participating in The Baby Bottle Project benefitting The Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland. This non-profit organization directly assists mothers and families experiencing crisis pregnancies by offering emotional, financial, material, and spiritual support through counseling, clothing, monetary provisions, prayer, and other aid. Each year the three locations have over 3,500 appointments with expecting mothers. By God's Grace, The Women's Centers have saved over 40,000 babies – and their mothers – from abortion. Please take a baby bottle home with you on October 10/11, fill it with spare change, and return it the weekends of October 17/18 and October 24/25. Please note the baby bottles cost almost $1 per bottle and are cleaned and reused afterwards so please return upon completion of the project. Thank you for helping defend life, and remember to keep all pro-life undertakings in your prayers.

MINISTRY & MORE

The Schoenstatt Women

The Schoenstatt Women of Orland Park will have their next meeting at St. Michael from 9:30 a.m.-12 p.m. on Saturday, October 24 in the Ministry East Room. They will be praying a Rosary and discussing highlights from the biography of Joseph Engling who discovered the fire of mission zeal and the courage to face life's surprises and difficulties after making his Covenant of Love with the Blessed Mother.

A Schoenstatt Woman of Orland Park shares: "A Covenant of Love goes beyond honoring and venerating Our Blessed Mother. It is a solemn and binding agreement we make with Our Lady. We pledge our love and sacrifices to the Capital of Grace in order that she will distribute the graces from his Divine Son to help us live a life of holiness. The shrines we create in our homes give us a place to bring our fears, disappointments, intentions, and petitions directly to her daily, not just when we visit the church. Since joining the Schoenstatt group, my relationship with Our Blessed Mother has grown deeper and stronger. I am reminded of the words of St. Mother Teresa: When feeling overwhelmed she prayed, "Mary, Mother of Jesus please be a mother to me now." She also said that holding her rosary was like holding my heavenly Mother's hand. From the cross, Jesus said, 'Behold thy Mother.' At our home shrine we can behold Our Lady, Our Mother, and Our Queen everyday.

The Adoration Chapel is open:
Monday-Friday, 7 a.m.-8:30 p.m.
Saturday 7 a.m.-5 p.m.
Sunday 7 a.m-3 p.m.

EL ESPIRITU DE PADRE FRANK

Una de las bendiciones de ser párroco es ayudar a preparar a las parejas para el matrimonio y ser testigo de su unión. Las bodas suelen ser alegres, y nos gusta participar en celebraciones tan magníficas.

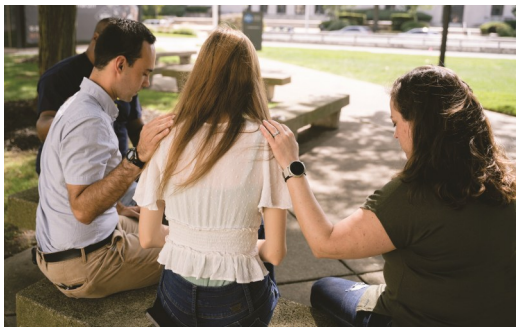

Creo que el Evangelio de esta semana tiene algo que decirnos sobre el hecho de ser invitados. Estamos invitados al banquete de bodas de Cristo. Esta invitación proviene de Dios mismo. Cada fin de semana celebramos cinco Misas; contamos con más de 4.500 familias registradas, lo cual representa a muchísima gente. Todos están invitados, pero lamentablemente, tal como sucede en el Evangelio de hoy, muchos de los invitados rechazan la invitación.

Quizás la palabra «rechazar» sea demasiado fuerte. Tienen otras cosas que hacer: dormir hasta tarde los domingos por la mañana, asistir a partidos y entrenamientos, planes de viaje, salir a desayunar o simplemente descansar. Algunos deciden no venir porque los horarios no les convienen, no están de acuerdo con alguna enseñanza de la Iglesia, sienten que la Iglesia está llena de escándalos e hipócritas, o no les agrada el párroco u otro sacerdote. La gente está dispuesta a dar cualquier excusa posible para justificar por qué no va a la iglesia los domingos. La mayoría de estas excusas culpan a otros en lugar de asumir la propia responsabilidad.

Las estadísticas recientes muestran que más del 80% de los niños que confirmamos en octavo grado abandonarán la Iglesia Católica cuando lleguen a los veinte años. No es que se pasen a otras iglesias; simplemente dejan de identificarse como personas religiosas para considerarse "espirituales", sea lo que sea que eso signifique. Dado que solo Jesús tiene el poder de salvar, creo que se dirigen al desastre; no es de extrañar que la gente se sienta perdida y vacía: se llenan de "cosas" y "relaciones" que carecen de poder salvador y que, por el contrario, conducen nuestras almas a la destrucción.

Nuestra asistencia a Misa no añade más gloria a Dios. La Misa es para nosotros, no para Dios. Uno de los prefacios que rezamos en la Misa dice: "Porque aunque no tienes necesidad de nuestra alabanza, nuestra acción de gracias es en sí misma un don tuyo, ya que nuestras alabanzas no añaden nada a tu grandeza, sino que nos benefician para la salvación". Jesús nos ha dado el don de la Eucaristía para darnos fuerza y alimento. Jesús mismo nos invita al banquete de bodas. Las Escrituras nos advierten que, con el tiempo, nuestra oportunidad de responder a esta generosa invitación podría agotarse. Las puertas se cerrarán y habrá llanto y rechinar de dientes. Somos nosotros quienes decidimos asistir o no al banquete. En cierto sentido, elegimos nuestro propio destino según cómo respondemos a la invitación de Dios. Podemos responder formando parte del Reino, o podemos responder alejándonos. La invitación está hecha: ¿cómo vas a responder? Jesús nos dice hoy: "Muchos son los invitados, pero pocos los escogidos".

Equipos de Oración

Quizás recuerden que hace más de un año iniciamos un nuevo ministerio de oración y se formaron equipos de oración. Creo firmemente en el poder de la oración. Algunas personas subestiman lo que es posible lograr a través de ella. La oración de intercesión consiste en que una persona ora por las necesidades de otra. A menudo, los fieles salen de Misa pidiendo a los sacerdotes y diáconos que oren por ellos o por alguno de sus seres queridos. Es un privilegio orar por alguien, y es algo que no debe tomarse a la ligera.

EL ESPIRITU DE PADRE FRANK

Cualquiera puede ofrecer este tipo de oraciones. En lugar de acudir al sacerdote para pedir una oración que se realizará en otro momento, los equipos de oración estarán disponibles para orar junto con la persona que lo solicite. Sé que muchos sienten cierta vergüenza al pedir oración. No hay nada que temer; la oración es sumamente poderosa. Algunas personas pueden mostrarse renuentes a orar por los demás porque no conocen las palabras adecuadas. Una vez más, no hay motivo de temor, ya que no existe una forma correcta de orar.

Cuando ofrecimos la presencia de equipos de oración después de Misa, fue una experiencia poderosa tanto para quienes pedían oración como para los miembros de los equipos. Lamentablemente, no he dedicado a este ministerio la atención que merece. Le he pedido al padre Louis que dirija este ministerio.

Para que este ministerio tenga éxito, necesitamos más voluntarios que formen parte de los equipos de oración. No se requiere experiencia previa. Se ofrecerá formación para que los intercesores se sientan cómodos orando con otras personas. Recuerden que Jesús dice que donde dos o tres se reúnen en su nombre, Él está presente en medio de ellos.

Les pido que reflexionen sobre si Dios los está llamando a formar parte de un equipo de oración. El P. Louis organizará una reunión próximamente, pero quería animarlos desde ahora a orar para discernir si Dios los está llamando a esta misión.

Uno, Dos y Tres

Es posible que tenga la sensación de que lo observan en la iglesia, ¡y la verdad es que así es! Durante el mes de octubre, todas las parroquias de la Arquidiócesis cuentan el número de asistentes a cada misa de fin de semana. Posteriormente, la Arquidiócesis utiliza estas cifras para la planificación futura y el análisis de tendencias. Esta es la época del año para asegurarse de que está presente y de que se tiene constancia de su presencia.

En el Amor de Cristo,
P. Frank

ORACIÓN POR LOS HIJOS ALEJADOS

Santa Mónica, madre sufriente y perseverante, tú que lloraste por años por la conversión de tu hijo Agustín,
y viste en vida la obra maravillosa de Dios en él,
intercede hoy por mis hijos (mencionar nombres),
para que vuelvan sus ojos al Señor,
sean liberados de todo mal
y caminen con fe hacia la vida eterna.
Ruega por las madres y padres que sufren,
por las familias divididas,
y por quienes se han alejado de Cristo.
Santa Mónica, tú que supiste esperar con amor, fortalece mi esperanza.
Amén.
